TUNEIN

Local soloist Nick Hunter

The Sinfonia will be joined by local pianist Nick Hunter for their July concert. The concert will comprise of Mendelssohn's Herbrides Overture, Beethoven's Piano Concert No.4 and Saint Sean's 2nd Symphony. Leading the orchestra is Peter van Drimmelen.

Nick recently spoke to Carly Thomas of the Manawatu Sinfonia: "The first time I listened to the concerto I was hooked in the first few bars. The start is different, with just the piano by itself. It's not like most concertos from the era that generally start off big. It has a reflective interior and I have always really enjoyed it." This will be Nick Hunter's first time with performing with the Manawatu Sinfonia and playing Beethoven's 4th concerto is new to him as well. The Manawatu Sinfonia with Nick Hunter will be performing at The Speirs Centre on Sunday at 2.30pm.

The Manawatu Youth Orchestra recently enjoyed a very successful evening in conjunction with the Wanganui Youth Strings when they presented a charity concert with proceeds going to the City Mission. Over 60 musicians took part performing music by Prokofiev, Schubert, Copland, and extracts from the Lord of the Rings. There was also a repeat performance of Isaac Henderson's Flute Concerto performed by Clare Sandbrook. The concert raised over $1000 for the City Mission.
